“Definition of an “A” grade...:of the highest quality ; a grade A performance”

My art grade is based on my....	A-to A+ (90-100)	B-to B+ (80-89)	C-to C+ (70-79)	D to F (0-69)
Creativity & Planning	Artwork is created with a sketch and plan; student always checks in with the teacher and makes changes that the teacher suggests. Student also goes above and beyond the expectation for the finished product.	Artwork is planned but student checks in only sometimes or not at all. They do not make changes that teacher suggests. Work may appear slightly unfinished.	Artwork is created with no plan in mind, no check-ins with the teacher and work is unfinished or rushed.	Artwork is not created at all. If anything is done, no time or effort is reflected in the work.
Following Directions	Artwork is created following all directions and asking questions when uncertain.	Artwork is created following some of the directions but not asking any questions when uncertain what to do.	Artwork is created with no thought about directions and no questions directed to the teacher at all.	Artwork is not created at all or if anything is done it's clear they did not follow any directions.
Craftsmanship & Neatness	Artwork is created that demonstrates their best effort, neatness and is a complete picture.	Artwork is created that demonstrates good effort but may be a little untidy or unfinished.	Artwork is careless, looks rushed or scribbled. Work is clearly not finished and artist has no intention of finishing even when they are given extra time.	Artwork is not done at all and if there is any work done it's carelessly scribbled.
Behavior	Great behavior in art class. The teacher does not need to remind the student to quiet down	Good behavior in art class but may need to be reminded to remain quiet or focus on work.	Behavior needs improvement. Constantly talking, not doing their work and their seat needs to be moved alone.	Always disruptive, seat change or warnings do not work to quiet down. Student support is used.
